Thank you for being a UnitedHealthcare Student Resources member. We're glad you're here.

This is your UnitedHealthcare health plan ID card. It has information about you and your coverage so you'll want to bring it with you wherever you go.

Please be sure all the information on your ID card is correct. Call us using the toll-free member number on your ID card if any information is not correct or you need assistance. You can start using your ID card on your effective date.

Global Travel Services Card: Please note that the provision of these services is not considered an insurance product within your State and is not a benefit provision of your UnitedHealthcare Student Health Insurance Plan. The global travel services are administered by Global Travel Plus, a travel assistance provider. Global Travel Plus is located at 202 Carnegie Center, Suite 302A Princeton, New Jersey. Toll Free: 1-855-289-2618, or +1-609-986-1212, <https://globaltravelplus.com>, info@globaltravelplus.com.

Vision benefits: Your medical plan includes vision benefits through UHC Vision. Your medical ID card will also serve as your vision ID card. You can login to myuhcvision.com to access self-service tools such as exploring plan benefits, viewing claim details and finding a vision provider.

To get the most of out of your plan, follow these steps:

1. Get access on the go.

Create your My Account at www.uhcsr.com/myaccount. Our mobile friendly website will help you:

- Find and estimate the cost of the care you need.
- See what's covered and get information about any additional benefits available to you.
- View claim details and account balances and much more.

2. Check out our videos page.

www.UHCSR.com/video has many informative videos on how to access and utilize key elements in your My Account, as well as a large library of mental health videos provided by Psych Hub.

3. Know your network.

With almost every plan, you'll pay less if you choose doctors, clinics and hospitals in your network. Search for network providers on www.uhcsr.com or the UHCSR mobile app.
